

FREE TRAINING

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

Behavioral Health Workers assess and treat individuals with mental, emotional, or substance abuse problems.

Typical activities in these careers may include individual and group therapy, crisis intervention, case management, client advocacy, prevention, and education

Eligibility

- Unemployed or underemployed
- Commitment to completing the training program
- Ability to work a variety of shifts
- Genuine interest in moving into a healthcare career pathway

Training Opportunities in:

Addiction Counselor ✓

Recovery Coach ✓

Therapeutic Mentors ✓

Mental Health Peer Support Specialist ✓

For more information

masshirelowellcc.com/health

MassHire Program & Services are funded in part by US Department of Labor (USDOL) Employment and Training Administration grants as well as non-federal funded grants. Additional details furnished upon request.